Interest Free Instalment Plans:

We offer interest-free instalment options by reoccurring card payments or direct debit to assist You in paying for course materials. A payment schedule is included on your VAT Receipt but payment dates are approximate and may vary slightly. In the event of failed payments, we will continue to attempt to process the payment at specific intervals, and we reserve the right to process payments through the original payment method or through a new Direct Debit Mandate to recover any outstanding balance to the limit of the total agreed fees. Payment of any outstanding balance can be processed on completion of the course and issue of Certification. Should we not be able to process the payment we reserve the right to withhold the Certification until the final balance is paid. Under no circumstances, shall we be deemed to have received payment until payment has actually been received by us in full.

Klarna Instalments and Finance Agreements:

If you pay using an instalment plan through Klarna, such payment will subject to additional terms between you and Klarna, available at <https://www.klarna.com/uk/terms-and-conditions>.

Cancellation/Returns Policy:

In accordance with The Consumer Contracts Regulations 2014 you have the right to cancel your order prior to the course materials being received. You can also cancel within 14-day days from the day of receiving your course materials. Once the 14-day cooling off period has expired you are committed to the total cost of the order. The option to cancel will not be allowed within the cooling off period if the course has been accessed and work submitted for marking, as at that point Awarding Body fees are incurred.

All cancellation requests must be made in writing. If you decide to cancel a Course within the 14-day cooling cooling-off period, we will process the refund as soon as possible once materials have been returned and, in any case, within 14 days of the day you have given notice of your cancellation. In this case, we will refund all the course fees that have been paid. It is your responsibility for the cost of returning all course materials, and they must be returned in a resalable condition otherwise a restocking/printing fee will be charged.

Please Note: Refunds or Cancellations cannot be offered outside of the stated refund policy. If you choose not to continue with your course outside of the set cancellation policy then all course fees must still be paid. Outstanding finance payments or Direct Debit plans must be made prior to the issue of certification.

There are no exceptions to the above cancellation policy as once the period has lapsed, Awarding Body fees and tutor fees are paid and any finance agreements with Klarna or GoCardless will take effect.

Non-Payment of Course Fees

In the event of a payment being cancelled or disputed and returned without consent, we will contact you via the Email Address supplied in your Order and we will then also contact you by Letter and/or Telephone / Text requesting that you rearrange the Payment. If our communications / requests for payment are ignored your account will be passed to a Debt Recovery Agency.

Please Note: In the event of your account being passed for collection, additional admin fees of 15%, for amounts up to £100.00, or 10% for amounts over £100.00 of your total remaining balance will be applied to your account, and will be payable by you. Further County Court costs may be applied if payment is not received which will affect your credit rating in the future. The debt is lodged with all the main credit reference agencies.

For the Avoidance of Any Doubt: If any Termination by You occurs after Dispatch, even prior to the Course being completed or the Services having been provided in full the full Course Price and any Fee's incurred due to Failed Payment or due to your Account being passed to a Collections Agency will remain due in full and payable by you.

Exceptions to the Cancellation/Returns Policy:

As per the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2014, some items fall outside of the usual returns policy and refunds cannot be offered for items considered digital or downloaded which includes activation codes or exam vouchers. Where refunds are not possible, we will state this in the course start-up information and on the product page of our website. Some online materials will be subject to the usual 14 day cooling off period although you waive the right to cancel your course enrolment when over 25% of the course content has been accessed.

GCSE/IGCSE & A Level Exam Failure Refund Policy:

If you fail a GCSE, IGCSE or A Level course we will give you your money back. Our only conditions are that:

- You have completed and returned all of your assignments in the course, earning a mark of at least 40% in each assignment.
- You have undertaken all the examinations required and submitted coursework were required.
- You provide written proof of exam failure.

Please Note: A pass at A Level is considered to be any grade between A and E. A Pass at GCSE or IGCSE is any grade between 4 and 9. The limit of liability to any student under any circumstances will be the amount paid to us for the course pack.

Transferring a Course:

A Course transfer may be possible outside of the returns policy term although this would only be possible if selecting a course offered by the same Course Developer or Approved Partner to the course you originally purchased, and whether this is possible will be at the discretion of the course developer. Any such request must be made to us in writing and a restocking fee may be required to cover the cost of the materials.

If it is possible to transfer to another Course, the total fees paid towards the discontinued Course will be offset against the cost of the new Course. A restocking fee may also be required and this cost will be set by the Course Developer or Approved Partner. It may be possible to transfer a course from you to a third party. Any such request must be made to us in writing and whether this is possible will be at the discretion of the Course Developer or Approved Partner.

Course Materials and Time Limits:

We affirm that any course materials will meet a satisfactory level of quality; however, we do not affirm that they will be error free. You will be responsible for inspecting the Course Materials as soon as is reasonably possible following receipt. Furthermore, you will be responsible for informing us about any oversights or errors as soon as possible.

The course support period will be detailed within our sales literature. Further extensions can be purchased on request. Course extensions will only be available if the syllabus that is being studied remains the same. If a syllabus change has occurred then there will most likely be a fee required for supplying new course materials and support.

We or our Approved Partners reserve the right to change Awarding Bodies if policies and procedures change during the period of tuition for your course. You will, however, receive a certificate at the same level and of the same status as the one described when you purchased your course. Some Certification Programs will have closing dates for Exams / Tests which are set externally by the appropriate organisation. We will try to offer only current and relevant Certification but as these exams are external it is your responsibility to research and make sure the exams are still obtainable for the booking of your Exam / Test.
